Limiting star service.

Postmaster General Key has all at once been efflicted by a highly moral and economic struck, and has issued an order which will be found in this issue of the Herald, for limiting service on clar mail routes to one time a week. The new rule is to go into effect on March 1st, the continuous feerered to the general absence of Logan trustees from the conventions, have been subjected to in storking the ditures within the sum granted by Congress.

The purpose of the postmatter general in issuing this order is to bit Congress a lick. He wants to make it appear that the stingeness of these guarding the public treasury is really to blame for the failure of the Star service to be kept up. The trick is too transparent. It will not go down with the people. The recent exposures of the disgraceful manner in which the department has been conducted, and the showing up of how the appropriation has been unnecessarily squandered, will show to the people that Kev's carelessness or want of business capacity, and not make it appears that the stingeness of the disgraceful manner in which the department has been conducted, and the showing up of how the appropriation has been unnecessarily squandered, will show to the people that Kev's carelessness or want of business capacity, and not make it may be a dark the second to be advanced in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemotrables, when an immediate relief can be so readily attained.
